

Science Key Learning My body

- Name and locate different parts of the human body and suggest what some of these body parts do
- Name the five senses
- Use my senses to carry out simple experiments.
- Explain how my senses help to keep me safe.
- Talk draw and write about what I can do with different body parts
- Learn about what my body needs to stay healthy

Key Questions	Key Vocabulary
What are the main parts of your body?	Body Parts- Head, neck, arms, elbows, legs, knees, face, ears, eyes, hair, mouth, teeth.
What are the five Senses?	Senses – sight, sound, smell, touch and taste

What will we be learning about in this topic?

- Label the different parts of the human body
- Describe what each of the different body parts do
- Explain what the five senses are
- Five senses experiments.
- Learn about the importance of a healthy and balanced diet
- Explore the different things my body can do

